“Be Holy”

1 Peter 1:13-19

“Be holy in all your conduct,” 1 Peter 1:15

Living as God sees us

(Numbers 23:21, Ephesians 5:25-27)

Fulfilling the purpose of our creation

(Genesis 1:26-27, Ephesians 4:17-19)

- Created to be distinct: Lights in the world (John 7:7, Eph. 5:6-11)
- Created in fellowship: Priests continually in the temple (1 Cor. 3:16, 1 Cor. 6:19)
- Created with purpose: Stewards called to work in God’s field (1 Cor. 3:9, John 15:8)

Where holiness begins: Deuteronomy 10:12-22

Holiness begins with an appreciation for the awesome nature of God

Holiness thrives when we think on holy things, surrounded by other holy people
